TO THE CLERK OF THE COURT:

Defendant SMITHKLINE BEECHAM CORPORATION dba
GLAXOSMITHKLINE ("GSK"), hereby removes to this court the state action described below. Removal is warranted under 28 U.S.C. § 1441 because this is an action over which this Court has original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1332.

I. BACKGROUND

1. On February 22, 2008, Plaintiffs Carolyn Pruitt as personal representative

NOTICE OF REMOVAL AND REMOVAL

CASE NO.

DRINKER BIDDLE & REATH LLP
50 Fremont Street, 20th Floor
San Francisco, CA 94105

SF1\396292\1

1 of John T. Pruitt (deceased), Charlotte Moyer as personal representative of Leo F. Moyer
 2 (deceased), and Lola McClintock as personal representative of James McClintock 3 (deceased) ("Plaintiffs"), represented by The Miller Firm of Orange, Virginia, 4 commenced this action in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of 5 San Francisco. A true and correct copy of the Complaint in the action is attached as 6 Exhibit "A" to the Declaration of Krista L. Cosner in Support of Notice of Removal and 7 Removal Action under 28 U.S.C. § 1441(b) (Diversity) and 28 U.S.C. § 1441(c) (Federal 8 Question) of Defendant SmithKline Beecham Corporation dba GlaxoSmithKline 9 (hereinafter "Cosner Decl.").

10 2. Defendants filed their answer to Plaintiffs' Complaint on March 25, 2008.
 11 A true and correct copy of the Answer in the action is attached as Exhibit "B" to Cosner 12 Decl. There have been no other proceedings in the state court action. Cosner Decl. ¶ 3.

13 3. This is one of many cases that have been filed recently in both federal and 14 state court across the country involving the prescription drug Avandia®. Cosner Decl. ¶ 15 6. Plaintiffs' counsel, The Miller Firm, has filed Avandia cases in both state and federal 16 courts, but only in the cases filed in California has The Miller Firm named McKesson, or 17 any distributor, as a defendant. Cosner Decl. ¶ 7.

18 4. On October 16, 2007, the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation 19 ("JPML") issued an order directing that then-pending Avandia-related cases be 20 transferred and coordinated for pretrial proceedings in the United States District Court for 21 the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, before the Honorable Cynthia M. Rufe, pursuant to 22 28 U.S.C. § 1407. See Transfer Order, In re Avandia Marketing, Sales Practices and Products Liability Litigation, MDL 1871 (E.D.P.A.) (a true and correct copy of which is 23 attached as Exhibit "C" to Cosner Decl.). Additional Avandia-related cases pending in 24 federal court, which are common to the actions previously transferred to the Eastern 25 District of Pennsylvania and assigned to Judge Rufe, are treated as potential tag-along 26 actions. See id.; see also Rules 7.4 and 7.5, R.P.J.P.M.L. 199 F.R.D. 425, 435-36 (2001).
 27 GSK intends to seek the transfer of this action to that Multidistrict Litigation, In re

1 Avandia Marketing, Sales Practices and Products Liability Litigation, MDL 1871, and 2 shortly will provide the JPML with notice of this action pursuant to the procedure for 3 "tag along" actions set forth in the rules of the JPML. Cosner Decl. ¶ 8.

4 5. As more fully set forth below, this case is properly removed to this Court 5 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441 because GSK has satisfied the procedural requirements for 6 removal and this Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 7 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1332.

8 II. DIVERSITY JURISDICTION

9 6. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 10 because this is a civil action in which the amount in controversy exceeds the sum of 11 $75,000, exclusive of costs and interest, and is between citizens of different states.

12 A. Diversity Of Citizenship

13 7. The Complaint names three plaintiffs as personal representatives for 14 deceased individuals. See Cosner Decl., Exh. A, ¶¶ 10-12:

15 a. Plaintiff, Carolyn Pruitt, is a citizen of the State of Illinois. See 16 Cosner Decl., Exh. A, ¶ 10.

17 b. Plaintiff, Charlotte Moyer, is a citizen of the State of California. See 18 Cosner Decl., Exh. A, ¶ 11.

19 c. Plaintiff, Lola McClintock, is a citizen of the State of California.
 20 See Cosner Decl., Exh. A, ¶ 12.

21 8. GSK is, and was at the time Plaintiffs commenced this action, a corporation 22 organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with its principal place 23 of business in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and therefore, is a citizen of Pennsylvania for 24 purposes of determining diversity. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c)(1). Cosner Decl. ¶ 9.

25 9. For the reasons set forth below, the remaining named defendant—26 McKesson Corporation, a Delaware corporation, with its principal place of business in 27 San Francisco, California (see Declaration of Greg Yonko, ¶ 3, attached as Exhibit "D" to 28 Cosner Decl.) is fraudulently joined in this lawsuit and its citizenship must be ignored for

1 the purpose of determining the propriety of removal.¹ See McCabe v. General Foods, 2 811 F.2d 1336, 1339 (9th Cir. 1987); Waldon v. Novartis Pharmaceuticals Corp., 2007
 3 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 45809 (N.D. Cal. June 18, 2007). Accordingly, there is complete 4 diversity of citizenship and the forum defendant rule is not implicated in this case.

5 B. The Amount In Controversy Requirement Is Satisfied

6 10. It is apparent on the face of the Complaint that Plaintiffs seek an amount in 7 controversy in excess of $75,000, exclusive of costs and interest.

8 11. Plaintiffs allege that as a result of their Avandia use, the decedents 9 “suffered heart injury, excessive fluid retention, fluid-overload disease, liver damage, 10 liver failure, stroke, and severe injury to the heart leading to cardiac arrest and sustained 11 physical and financial damages including pain and suffering.” See Cosner Decl. Exh. A, 12 ¶ 35.

13 12. Plaintiffs claim their decedents “suffered severe and permanent physical 14 injuries,” “endured substantial pain and suffering,” “underwent extensive medical and 15 surgical procedures,” “incurred significant expenses for medical care and treatment,” and 16 “lost past earnings and have suffered a loss of earning capacity.” Cosner Decl. Exh. A, ¶ 17 164.

18 13. Plaintiffs seek to recover trebled compensatory damages; physical pain and 19 suffering; restitution of all purchase costs for Avandia and disgorgement of profits; 20 amounts for loss of earnings and loss of earning capacity, as well as punitive and 21 exemplary damages. See Cosner Decl. Exh. A, Prayer for Relief.

22 14. Punitive damages are included in the calculation of the amount in 23 controversy. See Bell v. Preferred Life Assurance Society, 320 U.S. 238, 240 (1943).

24 15. Given the allegations set forth above, the face of the Complaint makes clear

26 27 28 1 GSK notes that the California citizenship of Charlotte Moyer and Lola McClintonck is not diverse from that of McKesson. However, as set forth, the citizenship of McKesson must be ignored because McKesson is a fraudulently joined defendant. When McKesson’s citizenship is disregarded, there is complete diversity of citizenship.

1 that Plaintiffs seek an excess of $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs. See Simmons v.
 2 PCR Tech., 209 F. Supp. 2d 1029, 1031 (N.D. Cal. 2002).

3 C. The Citizenship Of McKesson Must Be Ignored Because McKesson Is 4 Fraudulently Joined

5 16. A defendant is fraudulently joined, and its presence in the lawsuit is 6 ignored for purposes of determining diversity, “if the plaintiff fails to state a cause of 7 action against the resident defendant, and the failure is obvious according to the settled 8 rules of the state.” Morris v. Princess Cruises, Inc., 236 F.3d 1061, 1067 (9th Cir. 2001); 9 see also Hamilton Materials, Inc. v. Dow Chemical Corporation, 494 F.3d 1203, 1206 10 (9th Cir. 2007).

11 17. McKesson is fraudulently joined because Plaintiffs have failed to make any 12 material allegations against it. See Brown v. Allstate Ins., 17 F. Supp. 2d 1134, 1137 13 (S.D. Cal. 1998) (finding in-state defendants fraudulently joined where “no material 14 allegations against [the in-state defendants] are made”). Plaintiffs specifically allege that 15 Avandia was created and marketed by GSK; that GSK had longstanding knowledge of 16 Avandia-related dangers which GSK failed to adequately warn and disclose to 17 consumers; that GSK concealed, suppressed and failed to disclose these referenced 18 dangers; that GSK has represented and has continued to represent that it manufactures 19 and/or sells safe and dependable pharmaceuticals; that GSK has failed to adequately warn 20 or inform consumers, such as Plaintiffs’ decedents or Plaintiffs’ decedents’ prescribing 21 physicians of known defects in Avandia; and that as a result of GSK’s omissions and/or 22 misrepresentations, Plaintiffs’ decedent ingested Avandia. See Cosner Decl. Exh. A, at 23 ¶¶ 23:23, 27, 28:12-15, 34, 35:3-4

24 18. Plaintiffs fail to make any specific material assertions against McKesson, 25 and do not allege that the decedents ingested Avandia that was distributed by McKesson, 26 compelling the conclusion that Plaintiffs have fraudulently joined McKesson in an 27 attempt to defeat diversity jurisdiction. See e.g., Lyons v. American Tobacco Co., No.
 28 CIV. A. 96-0881-BH-S, 1997 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 18365 (S.D. Ala. 1997) (holding that 1 there is “no better admission of fraudulent joinder of [the resident defendant]” than the 2 failure of the plaintiffs “to set forth any specific factual allegations” against them).

 3 Plaintiffs cannot cure this deficiency by relying, as they do in the balance of their 4 complaint, on allegations directed towards “Defendants.”

5 19. In the body of the Complaint, Plaintiffs assert claims of: (1) negligence; (2) 6 negligent failure to adequately warn; (3) negligence per se; (4) negligent 7 misrepresentation; (5) breach of express warranty; (6) breach of implied warranty; (7) 8 strict products liability—defective design; (8) strict products liability—manufacturing 9 and design defect; (9) strict products liability—failure to adequately warn; (10) 10 fraudulent misrepresentation; (11) violations of the Consumer Legal Remedies Act, Civil 11 Code §1750, et seq. and California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.; (12) 12 unjust enrichment; (13) wrongful death; (14) survival action; (15) loss of consortium; and 13 (16) punitive damages. In these allegations, Plaintiffs aver that collectively, 14 “Defendants” or “Defendants GSK and McKesson,” defectively designed and 15 manufactured Avandia and made misrepresentations about the drug; failed to adequately 16 and properly test and inspect Avandia; failed to use reasonable care in the labeling, 17 marketing, selling, advertising and promoting of Avandia; concealed known risks and 18 failed to provide adequate warnings and labeling. All of these claims are substantively 19 based on the design and manufacture of Avandia, the adequacy of pre-clinical testing and 20 post-marketing surveillance, failure to warn, fraudulent concealment, and 21 misrepresentation. As a wholesale distributor of Avandia, McKesson played no role in 22 its promotion, marketing or advertising. All McKesson did was pass along unopened 23 boxes of Avandia, in unadulterated form, to hospitals and other businesses in the 24 healthcare industry. See Cosner Decl. Exh. D, ¶¶ 6-7.²

26 2 The Declaration of McKesson’s representative, Greg Yonko may be considered by the Court in 27 determining whether McKesson is fraudulently joined. Maffei v. Allstate California Ins. Co., 412 28 F.Supp.2d 1049 (E.D. Cal. 2006) (“[t]he court may pierce the pleadings, consider the entire record, and determine the basis of joinder by any means available”) (citing Lewis v. Time, Inc., 83 F.R.D. 455 (E.D.
 Cal. 1979) (“it is well settled that upon allegations of fraudulent joinder...federal courts may look beyond

1 20. Further, based on the "learned intermediary" doctrine, McKesson bore no 2 duty to warn Plaintiffs. The "learned intermediary" doctrine, the foundation of 3 prescription drug product liability law, provides that the duty to warn about a drug's risks 4 runs from the manufacturer to the physician (the "learned intermediary"), and then from 5 the physician to the patient. See Brown v. Superior Court (Abbott Labs.), 44 Cal. 3d 6 1049, 1061-62, n.9 (1988); Carlin v. Superior Court (Upjohn Co.), 13 Cal. 4th 1104, 7 1116 (1996). It is the physician, and only the physician, who is charged with prescribing
 8 the appropriate drug and communicating the relevant risks to the patient. See Brown, 44 9 Cal. 3d at 1061-62.

10 21. GSK and the FDA prepared the information to be included with the 11 prescription drug, Avandia, with the FDA having final approval of the information that 12 could be presented. Once the FDA has determined the form and content of the 13 information, it is a violation of federal law to augment the information. See 21 U.S.C.
 14 §331(k) (prohibiting drug manufacturers and distributors from causing the "alteration, 15 mutilation, destruction, obliteration, or removal of the whole or any part of the labeling" 16 of an FDA-approved drug held for sale); Brown v. Superior Court, 44 Cal.3d 1049, 1069 17 n.12 (noting that the FDA regulates the testing, manufacturing, and marketing of drugs, 18 including the content of their warning labels). Therefore, any safety and warning 19 information McKesson had about Avandia would have come from GSK in the form of 20 FDA-approved packaging and labeling. McKesson could not change the labeling it was 21 given by GSK as approved by the FDA without violating federal law. No duty can be 22 found where it requires a party to violate the law to fulfill it.

23 22. As such, given the lack of a causal connection between the injuries alleged 24 by Plaintiffs and McKesson's conduct, as well as the absence of any legal or factual basis 25 for Plaintiffs' claims against McKesson, McKesson's joinder is fraudulent and its

26
 27 the pleadings to determine if the joinder...is a sham or fraudulent device to prevent removal"). See also 28 Ritchey v. Upjohn Drug Co., 139 F.3d 1313, 1318-19 (9th Cir. 1998) (evidence may be presented by the removing party that there is no factual basis for the claims pleaded against the local defendant).

1 citizenship should be ignored for purposes of determining the propriety of removal.

2 III. FEDERAL QUESTION JURISDICTION

3 23. This Court has federal question jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' claims under 28 4 U.S.C. § 1331 and the principles set forth in Grable & Sons Metal Prods., Inc. v. Darue
 5 Eng'g & Mfg., 125 S. Ct. 2363 (2005).

6 24. As more fully explained below, Plaintiffs have made violations of federal 7 law critical elements of several of their claims.

8 A. Plaintiffs' Claims Require Construction And Application Of The 9 FDCA And Its Implementing Regulations

10 25. Count III of Plaintiffs' Complaint, "Negligence Per Se," explicitly alleges 11 that defendants violated federal law. Plaintiffs' claim, inter alia, that "[d]efendants 12 "violated the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, 21 U.S.C. Section 301 et seq., 13 related amendments and codes and federal regulations provided thereunder, and other 14 applicable laws, statutes, and regulations." See Cosner Decl. Exh A, ¶ 59.

15 26. Plaintiffs further claim that "[d]efendants' acts constitute an adulteration 16 and/or misunderstanding [sic] as defined by the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, 17 21 U.S.C. § 331...." See Cosner Decl. Exh A, ¶ 61.

18 27. Moreover, Count II of the Plaintiffs' Complaint, "Negligent Failure to 19 Adequately Warn," and Count IX, "Strict Products Liability – Failure to Adequately 20 Warn," also require construction and application of the FDCA and implementing federal 21 regulations, which govern approval of prescription drugs and regulate prescription drug 22 manufacturers' public and promotional statements, including all aspects of warnings and 23 labeling.

24 28. As a currently-marketed prescription drug, Avandia is subject to extensive 25 regulation by the FDA. The FDCA requires the FDA to ensure that "drugs are safe and 26 effective" for their intended uses, 21 U.S.C. § 393(b)(2)(B), in part by "promptly and 27 officially reviewing clinical research and taking appropriate action on the marketing of 28 regulated products." 21 U.S.C. § 393(b)(1). The Secretary of the FDA has the authority

1 to promulgate regulations to enforce the FDCA, which are codified in the Code of 2 Federal Regulations, 21 C.F.R. § 200, et seq. See 21 U.S.C. § 371(a).

3 29. To accomplish its purpose, the FDA maintains a Center for Drug 4 Evaluation and Research (the “CDER”). The CDER regulates pharmaceutical 5 companies’ development, testing and research, and manufacture of drugs. The CDER 6 examines data generated by these companies to conduct a risk/benefit analysis and make 7 an approval decision. The CDER also ensures truthful advertising for prescription drugs, 8 in part by approving Package Inserts that properly outline benefit and risk information.
 9 Once drugs are marketed, the CDER continues to monitor them for unexpected health 10 risks that may require public notification, a change in labeling, or removal of the product 11 from the market. In short, the CDER evaluates and monitors the effectiveness and safety 12 of prescription drugs. See <http://www.fda.gov/cder/about/faq/default.htm>.

13 30. Promotional communications to physicians about Avandia are contained 14 within, and restricted by, warning, labeling, and promotional materials, such as the 15 Package Insert, that are approved and monitored by the FDA to ensure the provision of 16 accurate information about the drug’s respective risks and benefits. Under federal 17 regulations, even claims in promotional labeling or advertising must be consistent with 18 approved labeling. 21 C.F.R. § 202.1(e)(4) (2005).

19 31. The FDA’s responsibility to regulate prescription drugs sold in the United 20 States, and to enforce laws with respect to such drugs, inclusive of the precise content 21 and format of prescription drug labeling (e.g., the instructions, warning, precautions, 22 adverse reaction information provided by manufacturers, and marketing materials), is 23 plenary and exclusive. See 21 U.S.C. § 301, et seq.

24 32. Plaintiffs have explicitly alleged violations of federal law in their 25 “Negligence Per Se” claim, and have made alleged violations of federal law a critical 26 element of their “Negligent Failure to Adequately Warn” and “Strict Products Liability – 27 Failure to Adequately Warn” claims. Accordingly, Plaintiffs’ claims necessarily raise 28 substantial federal questions by requiring the Court to construe and apply the FDCA and 1 its implementing regulations.

2 B. Federal Control Of Drug Labeling And Warning

3 33. On January 24, 2006, the FDA announced a rule that includes a detailed 4 and emphatic statement of the FDA's intention that its regulation and approval of 5 prescription drug labeling preempt most state law claims related to the adequacy of 6 prescription drug warnings because such claims frustrate "the full objectives of the 7 Federal law." See Requirements on Content and Format of Labeling for Human 8 Prescription Drug and Biologic Products, 71 Fed. Reg. 3922, 3934 (Jan. 24, 2006) ("FDA 9 believes that under existing preemption principles, FDA approval of labeling under the 10 act. . . . preempts conflicting or contrary State law."). See also In re Bextra and 11 Celebrex Marketing, 2006 WL 2374742 (N.D. Cal., August 16, 2006) (Celebrex 12 decision); In re Bextra and Celebrex Marketing, 2006 WL 2472484 (N.D. Cal., August 13 24, 2006) (Bextra decision).

14 34. Plaintiffs allege that GSK failed to disclose certain risks of Avandia. See 15 e.g., Cosner Decl. Exh. A, ¶ 27:7-9. This allegation necessarily requires Plaintiffs to 16 establish that the FDA, which has exclusive jurisdiction over the labeling of drugs, would 17 have approved the warning the Plaintiffs allege should have been given.

18 35. Accordingly, there is a substantial federal question with respect to whether 19 Plaintiffs can claim that GSK violated state law in light of the FDA's control of 20 Avandia's labeling and warning and its position on conflict preemption.

21 C. The Federal Interest In Providing A Forum

22 36. The federal government has a strong interest in having a federal court 23 decide several of the issues in this case. Among these issues are:

- 24 a. whether any conduct of GSK violated any federal laws or regulations related to the labeling and marketing of Avandia; and
- 25 b. whether the FDA-approved Avandia label was false and misleading, as alleged by Plaintiffs, and whether a state may impose liability on GSK for not providing more information regarding alleged risks, as 1 Plaintiffs contend GSK should have done.

2 37. Plaintiffs' claims may be vindicated or defeated only by construction of 3 federal statutes and regulations. The availability of a federal forum to protect the 4 important federal interests at issue is therefore consistent with Grable, and determination 5 by a federal court of the substantial and disputed federal issues that lie at the heart of this 6 case would not "disturb any congressionally approved balance of federal and state 7 judicial responsibilities." Grable, 125 S. Ct. at 2368.

8 IV. CONFORMANCE WITH PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS

9 38. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter based on federal question and 10 diversity of citizenship, and the present lawsuit may be removed from the Superior Court 11 of the State of California for the County of San Francisco, and brought before the United 12 States District Court for the Northern District of California pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 13 1331, 1332 and 1441.

14 39. GSK and McKesson were served with Plaintiffs' Complaint on February 15 28, 2008. Cosner Decl. ¶ 10. Therefore, this Removal has been timely filed within 30 16 days of service, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b).

17 40. All of the properly joined and served defendants consent to removal.
 18 McKesson's consent to remove is not necessary because it is fraudulently joined. See, 19 e.g., Easley v. 3M Company, et al., 2007 WL 2888335 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (citing Emrich v.
 20 Touche Ross & Co., 846 F.2d 1190, 1193 n.1 (9th Cir. 1988)).

21 41. The United States District Court for the Northern District of California is 22 the federal judicial district encompassing the Superior Court of the State of California for 23 the County of San Francisco, where this suit was originally filed. Venue therefore is 24 proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a).

25 42. Pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), GSK will promptly file a 26 copy of this Notice of Removal with the clerk of the Superior Court of the State of 27 California for the County of San Francisco, where this suit was originally filed.

28 43. Defendant reserves the right to amend or supplement this Notice of 1 Removal.

2 WHEREFORE, GSK respectfully removes this action from the Superior Court of 3 the State of California for the County of San Francisco to the United States District Court 4 for the Northern District of California, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441.
